HARDING HIGH SCHOOL
MARION, OHIO

Here gathered from all places and all time,
The waifs of wisdom and of folly meet.
High thoughts that awe and lilting words that chime
Like Sabbath bells heard in far valleys sweet;
Quaint fancies musical with dainty rhyme
Like the soft patter of an infant's feet;
And laughter radiant as summer skies,
The genial sunshine of the happy heart;
And giant hopes looking out from human eyes,
With thrilling hymns that make the quick tears start,
Are here, in garlands of strange fantasy,
To catch the careless passer's casual look,
And show within the limits of a book,
Unto him his life's own large epitome.

"In grateful appreciation for his many years of service . . . ."

We HONOR . . .

To Kora H. Marshall, principal of Harding High School since 1908, is grateful appreciation for his many years of service in high school work, for his interest in the problems of young people, and for his guidance into their future work, we dedicate this issue of the 1940 Quiver.

Mr. Marshall began his teaching career at Grand Prairie in 1899, came to Marion as a high school teacher in 1903, and became principal in 1908.

During his years of high school work in Marion he has seen many changes in the school. When he first began teaching, Central was used for the high school. Then the new high school was built in 1915 and he moved to the present site of the high school. In 1921 the name was changed from Marion High School to Harding High School.

These have been eventful years and he has seen many changes — new faces in the faculty, and an increasing enrollment with a building too small to accommodate adequately the many activities, projects, and larger student body. All this has meant greater problems for him, and greater endeavors on his part.

To Mr. Marshall on his retirement, the students, alumni, and faculty extend sincere wishes for his health and happiness in the future.

From the Scrapbook of Personalities . . . . .

Make a note — looking back over the years we recall happy associations — not just in class — sometimes they gave us good advice — we had the feeling that they wanted us to succeed — we set them down here in our scrapbook as friends, real friends, for they knew our faults and liked us just the same.

C. A. HUDSON
Superintendent

To the Quiver Annual:

An Annual depicts very graphically the school activities of the year. Much work on the part of the students and faculty advisers is involved. This effort should be appreciated.

I desire to express a personal word of commendation to those who have made this book possible, and also extend sincere greetings to the student body.

To the Students of Harding:

Few schools in Ohio have a year book as attractive as that of Harding. This splendid production is made possible by the united efforts of many people; the efficient Staff, loyal student body, especially the senior class, friendly merchants and professional men, and many teachers who have given so liberally of time and thought. All of these combined have given us a cross section of Harding school life which is most commendable.

Congratulations to the editor and the Senior Class.

From The Senior Scrapbook

THE FUTURE OF OUR NATION . . . . . rests with our graduating class and the senior classes of hundreds of other high schools throughout the United States.

Confident that this class will give humanity its quota of leaders and good citizens, let us look back to its past four years of high school work.

At Central and Vernon, as freshmen, these seniors were looked up to by their 7th and 8th grade followers.

Gerald Strauss, president; Helen Plotner, vice-president; Don Lister, secretary; and Carl Robinson, treasurer led the Central people. In the field of dramatics they presented three one-act plays, "The Travelers," "Three's a Crowd," and "Alice's Blue Gown," all under the direction of their dramatic coach, Miss Zelma Howard. Other achievements of the class were the publishing of a school paper, "The X-Ray," and placing second in basketball and football standings.

At Vernon officers were: Ralph Howard, president; Jean Armbruster, vice-president; Dorothy Taylor, secretary; and Isadore Birnbaum, treasurer.

Predomination in basketball, presentation of several plays and the publication of the "Vernonian," an annual, picturing the year in detail, were the outstanding accomplishments of this class.

The sophomore year merged the belligerent factions into a solid, compact, unified group, led by Bill Taylor, president; Isadore Birnbaum, vice-president; Margie Holtz, secretary; and Betty Creviston, treasurer.

As juniors the class elected Bill Taylor, president; Grant Mouser, vice-president; Barbara Caldwell, secretary; and Isadore Birnbaum, treasurer.

Athletics and dramatics shoved the class nearer the center of the spotlight as the Harding basketball squad, comprised mostly of juniors, won the N. C. O. championship undisputed. Miss Dorothy Hanson, speech and English teacher, directed the successful junior play, "Headed For Eden."

John Roberts, Barbara Caldwell, Dona Williams, and Bill Walters, in 1, 2, 3, 4, order, comprised the able and competent commanders of the senior and final year, always to be remembered for its championship N. C. O. football team, for its stirring senior play, "The Queen's Husband," and for its many members of high scholastic averages and social prominence.

And so we leave our compulsory school days and are sprung into a warring, greedy, jealous world, in which the hope of our free country looks to us, the men and women of tomorrow, for the world of tomorrow.

JOHN ROBERTS

Topped by a "Heinie," always seen teasing the girls, John Roberts wanders about the halls of Harding . . . "Tete" is well known for his athletic prowess both in football and in basketball . . . His French class escapades are enough to cause Mlle. Freer to weep but his rating with the students is A!

BARBARA CALDWELL

Tall and pretty, with a grand personality and a sense of humor, Barbara Caldwell, "Barb" to her friends, is well known to the teachers for her executive ability and efficiency . . . You can't always be sure but sometimes we think typing is her pet peeve.

DONA WILLIAMS

Secretary of class of '40 . . . A star in dramatics . . . friendly personality, a smile for everyone . . . really a grand person to know . . . dark and slim with a deep mellow voice.

BILL WALTERS

A veritable whiz at football, and a Beau Brummel about school, Bill Walters has become one of the most popular Edison students to come to Harding . . . He's said to be a top-notch dancer and besides that — we got this from a little bird — he can ice-skate too.

Junior Odds and Ends

CLASS OF 1941

Combining to form a single class, the upper classmen from Vernon and Central emerged as the Sophomore class at Harding last year. As Freshmen at Vernon and Central these students had been active in Torch Clubs, Girl Reserves, Dramatic clubs, journalistic enterprises, and athletics.

Their leaders were, at Central: Gerald Strauss, president; James Mounts, Vice-president; Robert Gilbert, secretary; and Richard Leonard, treasurer; and at Vernon the girls seemed to hold the spotlight having for their officers: Jean Armbruster, president; Patricia Dodd, vice-president; Jean Carey, secretary; and Clayton Gifford, treasurer.

At Vernon two groups of plays were given, by both eighth and ninth grade pupils. In the fall, two comedies, "Be at Home at Midnight" and "Thursdays at Home" were presented. These were followed by the spring plays, "The Date" and "Hot Biscuits." The plays were directed by Miss Mildred Wetterauer, coach of dramatics and English teacher at Vernon. Under the direction of Miss Zelma Howard the Central dramatics club presented three one-act plays, "Bill of Fare," "Cleaned and Pressed," and "Mrs. MacDonald Had a Farm."

The "Vernonian," the year book of Vernon and the "X-Ray," Central's school paper, were the enterprises of the journalistic staffs.

In athletics Central was predominant on the gridiron winning the city junior high school league while the Vernon quintette racked up a city championship on the basketball court.

The combined classes were active as sophomores in most of Harding's extra curricular activities, taking part in the winter plays presented by the Props and Q's and also excelling in athletics. They had for their officers: Gerald Strauss, president; Kenneth Sweeney, vice-president; Helen Ditter, secretary; and King Keller, treasurer.

Living up to expectation the class this year has excelled in athletics, dramatics, debate, and other activities. The junior class play, "The Late Christopher Bean" directed by Miss Dorothy Hanson was a great success.

Sophomore Scraps and Stuff . . .

Beginning of the End for the 1939-40 Harding sophomore class. Although only half finished this class has built a strong background already.

Ray Young, president; Hedgar Halverson, vice president; Ross Cockerill, treasurer; and Phylis Ruhl, secretary were the officers for the Vernon freshmen.

Activity ran high in dramatics, journalistic enterprises, numerous clubs and sports. Under the direction of Miss Mildred Wetteraur, four plays, "In Spring A Young Man's Fancy," "Feed Store Mystery," "The Visitor," and "The Tantrum," were presented. The "Vernonian," a school year book, was published. In club endeavors photography, Latin, library, and dramatics held the spotlight.

Leaders at Central were: Charles Reading, president; Leroy Harvey, vice president; John Rea, treasurer; and Eileen Roberts, secretary.

With Miss Howard as director, three plays were presented; "Ask Nancy," Fine For Bad Luck, and "Shipbuilder." Publishing the X-Ray, the school paper, and participating in many clubs such as science, dramatics, chess, Girl Reserves, and others, wound up their freshman year.

Blending into one group with such leaders as: Day Hurst, president; Jim Turner, vice president; Leo Belknap, secretary; and Charles Reading, treasurer, this sophomore class is well prepared to glide through their last years of school work.

Edison High School excerpts . . .

"Dying to Live," a riotous farce in three acts by Wilbur Braun, was presented by the junior class under the co-direction of Miss Mary Jo Stafford and Mr. Karl Bechtle. Mr. Mark Baker was the business manager with Olin Hoisington acting as student business manager. Approximately 50 students took part in staging the production.

The purchasing of class pins, two social activities, assisting on prom committees and presenting student recognition and talent on May 31 at Junior Talent Assembly, all left memorable imprints in the minds of juniors of '40. President James Craven, was assisted by Edwin Smith as vice president, Carl Whiteman, as secretary and Everett Smith as treasurer.

The sophomore class with sponsor Miss Trolla Klopfenstein had as its officers, Edward Ebert, president; James Gilmore, vice president; Dick Owens, secretary; and Billy Craft, treasurer. Under the direction of Miss Winifred Fay with Miss Trolla Klopfenstein assisting and Mr. Harold Runkle, business manager the class presented three one act plays, "Dear Aunt Maria," "Gold Feathers," and "Wedding Rehearsal."

Officers of the Junior Red Cross were president, Dorotha Brewer; vice president, Helen Bierce; secretary, Lena Barr; and treasurer, Jim Gilmore. Rowena Allen was president of the Junior Red Cross city council and Virginia Martin was Edison's representative to the city council. Favors were made at Easter time and were sent to the Veterans Home. The club also sent $5.00 to the Finnish Aid and brought in toys to the Phalanx Club. During the cold weather Hot Dog sales were sponsored at the school.

The Scientific Research Club under the sponsorship of Mr. Mark Baker conducted a study of the common cold, visited science departments of Ohio State University, and held a banquet at the close of the Clubs year. Presiding officers for the club were President, Paul Bishop; Vice President, Olin Hoisington; Secretary, Irene Morgan; and Treasurer, Jacqueline McVicker.

The officers for the Girl's Athletic Association for the year 1939-1940 were: president, Elizabeth Haberman; vice president, Pat Myers; secretary, Rowena Allen; and treasurer, Ada Hardesty. Special activities of the association included several successful Wednesday "tea dances," a P. T. A. demonstration, an "open house" play night and the May Festival featuring the May Queen, Jane Eaton. The Maid of Honor was Vaneta Mason; the Crown Bearer, Donna Rech and the flower girls, Faith Line and Twilla Schneck. G. A. A. members made up the rest of the court.

The vocationally minded K-Y's with their sponsor, Mr. Stuart Shipman, and officers, Carl Whiteman, Kenneth Edington, Frank Turner, and Charles Williams, visited industries of Marion and vicinity.

Boy Scouts of Troop 2 sponsored by the Edison P. T. A. held a Father and Son banquet along with other activities.

Dorothy Washburn and Donna Rech were co-editors of the first year issuance of a printed "Spotlight" published by the journalism class with faculty sponsorship of Miss Jessie Henderson, Miss Mary Jo Stafford, Mr. Harold Runkle, and Edwin Smith business manager.

At the bi-weekly business meetings of the Library council new books are discussed and examined, and Miss Ethel M. Garn, the sponsor, explains library routine. One social meeting during a six-week period is held. Officers this year were president, Jack Seebach; vice president, Ronald Stalter; secretary, Elizabeth Haberman; and treasurer, Donna Rech. Each grade from the eighth to the eleventh is represented by three members each.

Edison's representatives on the Harding football and basketball team were John Edington, Martin Lewis, Bud Edwards and James Gilmore while John is a pitcher on the baseball team. The junior high program in charge of Coach Carl Brickley, assisted by George Brandon, was carried on in connection with the senior high schedule using the same type of routine.

Mr. William Dowler, Mr. Homer Huffman, Miss Lucille Russell and Mr. L. G. Jones, presented Edison's orchestra, band and choruses at school concerts.

The officers of the Senior Girl Reserves, Donna Rech, Martha Lee, Elizabeth Haberman, Dorothy Wenninger, Dorothy Washburn, and Jean McCaulley, supervised the activities of the Holy Week Services at the school, the Ring Group of twelve girls and the annual spring dance in association with the Hi-Y.

Activities of the Hi-Y were numerous this year, including a field trip to Columbus during the Spring vacation, helping the other Hi-Y groups plan the conference held in Marion, and holding a Spring dance in connection with the Girl Reserves. Mr. Karl Bechtle was sponsor of this group headed by Edwin Smith, president; Everett Smith, vice president; Richard Edwards, secretary; Edward Johnson, treasurer.

Activities . . . . .

It's fun to belong — but the biggest problem is how to find time for so many activities — we learn to select and to concentrate on a few — we're kept busy, but it's fine to be working actively with some group.

HARDING

Stand up and cheer! It's Tedo and the band! Red and black uniforms marching up and down the field, making formations, playing, cheering — just like the rest of us. "Bumpy," Harding's little mascot, is there too, strutting and whirling his baton with the greatest of ease Mr. Huffman worked hard with the band and Harding is rightfully proud of it.

ORCHESTRA

One! Two! Three! Four! One! Two! Three! Four! No, it is not someone trying to control his temper. It's Mr. Homer Huffman patiently beating out the time for Harding Orchestra.

Besides furnishing the music for all class plays, class day and graduation exercises, and numerous school activities, this musical group entered the district contest, where it received a superior rating.

Governing these "Melodious Melody Makers" are Howard Cahill, president; Gene Smithson, vice-president; and Jane Thomas, secretary-treasurer.

AIM-HI

"Scrapbooks, scrapbooks, scrapbooks," is often the anguished cry of a Girl Reserve Ring Group member, for part of the work is notebooks and scrapbooks. However, if any girl completes the requirements she has the satisfaction of knowing that she is just a little more progressive than the other girls. Besides that she has a lovely silver ring with a Girl Reserve insignia.

THE QUEEN'S HUSBAND

ANNUAL HARDING HIGH SCHOOL SENIOR CLASS PLAY

Directed by LUCILE FOREMAN

THE JUNIOR PLAY

"THE LATE CHRISTOPHER BEAN"

by Sidney Howard

Characters:

Abby, the maid, central figure of play.....Avis Lill, Marcella Burtsfield
Dr. Haggett, a country doctor.....Ralph Mapes
Mrs. Haggett, the doctor's wife who has citified ideas.....Jean Armbruster, Marilyn Reeley
Susan Haggett, youngest daughter.....Jeanne Dixon, Carolyn King
Warren Creamer, painter, Susan's lover.....Harold Fralich
Ada Haggett, oldest daughter, baby type.....{ Betty Jo Hogue / Joan Austin
Tallant, slick New York painting dealer.....Billy Veness
Maxwell Davenport, New York art critic.....Warren Kleinmaier
Rosen, Jewish picture dealer.....Kenneth Sweeney

When the curtain fell on the last act of the play, the Juniors sighed with relief for they had just given one of the finest performances in the history of junior plays.

The scene of the play was at the home of a small country doctor not far from Boston.

The plot centered around the paintings of Christopher Bean, an old patient of Dr. Haggett's, who had died ten years before. He had left many of these pictures behind, which the Haggetts used to patch the chicken house roof or supposedly burned, because. in their estimation, they were terrible. But to their dismay the paintings of Chris Bean suddenly became famous.

The play was a delightful comedy all the way through, and a completely different type play from any Miss Hanson had ever attempted to produce before.

THE SENIOR PLAY

"THE QUEEN'S HUSBAND"

by Robert Emmet Sherwood

Speak louder, George . . . No, girls, you must smile more naturally, and be sure to make a low curtsey. Get your cues quicker, June! Be sure you enunciate clearly, Carl, or you won't be heard. You will have to study your lines, John, before we can get that right. Such were several of the many exclamations from Miss Foreman when attempting to prepare "The Queen's Husband," for the showings on May 9, at the Palace Theater.

The plot centered around a puppet king, under control of his wife. His daughter, Princess Anne, rebels at marrying Prince William, a degenerate, despicable prince because she loves Granton, secretary to the King. The queen offers opportunity for her family's rebellion by going to America. Anne is successful in her love life, and her mother is happy even though the groom is Granton.

LIBRARY COUNCIL

"That'll be three cents please, your book is overdue." These are familiar words to the careless student who neglects to return his book to the library when due. The library council, consisting of students interested in library work, is constantly on the alert for such offenders. They also help their director, Miss Jacoby, by assisting students in finding books, placing books on the shelves, and by checking card files . . . There are no officers in the club this year.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Induction services, for new members of the Harding chapter of the National Honor Society, were held in West Hall, May 1, for 47 seniors selected from this year's class.

The members were selected by the faculty on basis of evenness of disposition, integrity, responsibility, initiative, leadership, perseverance, social adaptability, study hall and corridor behavior, intellectual curiosity, originality, cooperative spirit, service to students, and service to teachers.

YE MERRIE PLAYERS

"To hold as 'twere a mirror up to nature." — Hamlet (Shakespeare) . . . So reads the motto of Ye Merrie Players . . .

The membership of this club which is made up of the cast and all those who assist in the senior play, tries to establish and continue interest in dramatics and school plays.

Climaxing the year, a banquet was held for the members and the sponsor, Miss Lucile Foreman.

KINESIAN CLUB

Kinesian Club — for the girls who desire to participate in badminton — ping pong — shuffle board — luncheons — dances. A dinner-dance held April 13 — the outstanding social event of 1940 club. Any senior girl wanting another year of gym is eligible to remain in the Girl's Athletic Association. Dona Williams, as president — Margie Holtz, as vice president — and Virginia Starner, as the secretary-treasurer — hold the reign of the organization this year.

VOGUETTES

"A stitch in time saves nine," this proverb has been put into practical use by the girls of Harding who are taking related arts. Like all good scholars they don't confine their efforts strictly to sewing. They conducted candy sales, made curtains for the Props and Q's, and held a spring style show. They have their meetings once a month under the guidance of Miss Verna Riley. The girls receive practical experience from this club and are helped in choosing a career.

LE PETIT SALON

Some of the staid Harding students are transformed into jabbering Frenchmen when Le Petit Salon is in session. Perhaps Mlle. Freer and Mlle. Starr find some of the French hard to translate though, for even "A" and "B" students make mistakes. At any rate, a great deal of fun is had when the club meets at a member's house once every six weeks and carries on the business of the day.

INTER NOS.

"Forsan et haec olim meminisse iuvobit." . . . Miss Turney would expect an intelligent translation of this phrase from the brilliant students eligible for Inter Nos. This club, Harding's oldest, is formed of juniors and seniors. The meetings, held at the homes of different students, are centered around the ancient Greek and Roman recreations and cultures. This year the "C" students were taken in as associate members.

SENIOR GIRL RESERVES

Little blue and white yarn dolls dancing on a blue and white yarn bow — mothers and daughters sipping tea, eating cookies — jumping out of bed extra early for lovely pre-Easter services — singing blithe, happy songs at meetings, gay music and colorful frocks at the annual spring dance — all lovely and poignant memories of Senior Girl Reserves.

JUNIOR GIRL RESERVES

Full of life and fun, these juniors! They'll keep things humming in the Girl Reserve circles next year. Their assistance and ideas this year were a tremendous help to the seniors in governing the club and planning the social affairs. Because of this, the seniors, leaving the club in the hands of these girls, are confident of its continued success.

SOPHOMORE GIRL RESERVES

Get into the swing of it! Next year the sophomores will really "get into the swing" of Harding and its various organizations. Not the least of these is the Girl Reserves. The sophomore girls will become committee chairmen, members, and officers. There will be cabinet meetings, dances and teas, so take a deep breath, girls, and — start in!

Day Hurst, president; Charles Roberts, vice-president; Bill Buettin, secretary; and Harold Baker, treasurer, are officers in the sophomore division of Hi-Y. The members of the Hi-Y club are chosen from a nucleus of Torch club boys coming to Harding from the Junior High schools.

. . . Create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community, higher standards of Christian living . . . Thus reads the purpose of this club for boys.

QUIVER STAFF

"Could you possibly do this story for me by tomorrow?" queries the Quiver editor, Barbara Caldwell, and one of the staff jumps to be of assistance. Perhaps it's Kathryn Andrews, assistant editor, or maybe it's Peggy Knapp or Maxine Buettin, photo editors. At any rate someone is always on hand.

For weeks, instead of sheep, the Quiver staff had pictures jumping fences in their nightmares. After sorting some three hundred photos, identifying them as to name and rank, and labeling them, the hard-working journalists were ready to give up in despair, but their efforts will be well rewarded if every boy and girl is properly identified and everyone is happy.

Pursuing their hobby, Charles Ellery and Ray Smith took many informal snapshots of the school and the students, some of which the students will be surprised to see. They give a glimpse of Harding at its informal best.

Attempting to present the humorous side of life, Dona Williams, feature editor, and Paul Bishop, cartoonist, collaborated on the feature material, while Rob Roy Apt has tried to make the book "a thing of beauty and a joy forever."

Carl Robinson, as sports editor, had the pleasure of recording the successful sports year for posterity.

Working hard and due for a great deal of credit are Ralph Howard and Isadore Birnbaum who took care of the business affairs and helped make the publication possible by their efforts.

HERALD STAFF

Behind the news stories, features, sports stories, editorials, and ads of the Herald, stands a staff of writers, whose main aim in life, for the present, is to "get that Herald story in in time." The business manager and his staff beg the merchants on bended knee for an ad extolling the virtues of their products which, they assure them, will be placed in an advantageous position. Reporters pursue news stories with zest and vigor, and subjects for interviews are calmly tracked to their lair and persuaded to tell all. Gossip writers go about with one ear to the ground, hearing current rumors and facts, while the editors proof-read, distribute, and make-up the dummy for the Herald. One week it's Donna's class and the next one it's Loren's. Miss Foreman, Donna Reidenbaugh, and Loren Tibbals, as faculty adviser and editors respectively, are responsible for the success of the paper this year. It was a greatly improved paper and was much enjoyed by the Herald subscribers.

FOOTBALL SEASON

The 1939 grid season opened at Harding Stadium with the Upper Sandusky Rams. Facing a team of veterans in a temperature nearing the high eighties, the Prexies came through for a spectacular 34-12 win. Displaying ability as a power squad the Presidents rolled up 270 yards to Upper's 53 on the ground. In the air the Rams were superior, gaining 98 yards and two touchdowns. Harding hit a new high for penalties losing 75 yards from miscues.

After leading 6-0 in the first quarter, Delaware Willis High's Senators were defeated 28-6 by the Harding grid team. Facing what might be regarded as a two man team in Scott and Mendenhall, the Prexies managed to hold them down after the first quarter. Outstanding play was turned in by Russ Reichardt who accounted for three touchdowns.

Coming into the third battle of the season, our varsity faced the strong Piqua eleven who had tied Columbus Central the week previously. Taking the ball early in the first quarter, the Indians moved down to the two from which Norman Cruse plunged over. The point was converted and Piqua led 7-0. Following a pass Shaw plunged over and Reichardt converted to tie the score just before the gun sounded.

Traveling to Ashland for their fourth encounter, and the N. C. O. opener the Harding varsity managed to push-over three touchdowns in the last half to win 18-9. Ashland's points came from a touchdown and a field goal. Having the scoring honor was Bill Walters, who plunged over twice.

Harding Dads were honored at the Bucyrus-Prexy battle where the Bucks were pushed all over the field for a one-sided 30-0 score. This was one of the cleanest games of the year with only fifteen yards in penalties being called. The game featured power plus, with Harding's 323 yards of ground gained to 45 for Bucyrus.

In one of the hardest fought games of the year, the Presidents pounded over two touchdowns in the last quarter to win over Shelby 13-0. This game, played in the snow, featured defense, with both teams counting on strong lines to pull them out of trouble. Late in the third quarter Reichardt came into the game and wove fifteen yards for a touchdown and then converted the extra point. On a line play Owen Creasap made a beautiful tackle but was injured so badly that he was taken to a hospital where he was found to have a fractured veterbra. Reichardt again scored late in the last quarter and the game was over.

In the season's best defensive game, the Harding eleven outcharged and triumphed over the highly touted Toledo Woodward eleven by a 12-0 score. Playing Woodward for the second year, the Prexies evened the score in games, being defeated last year 12-6. The first touchdown was made by Warren McGinnis when he blocked a punt and recovered a goal. The second six-pointer came in the third quarter after a long run by Ferguson to the one where Roberts took the ball and plunged over for a victorious score.

Breaking two records, one an all time and the other an eleven year record, the Prexies annihilated the Galion Orangemen 54-6. The eleven lean years for Harding football were at last over as this defeat assured a title-winning team to Harding. The second record was the highest score ever run up in a Prexie-Galion clash. Leading by but ten points at the half the Varsity boys turned on, rolling up thirty-eight points in the last half. Scoring was done in all possible ways, there were eight touchdowns, a field goal and three extra points.

Playing a mid-week game the Prexies proved that they were still hot by turning back a strong Mt. Vernon eleven, by a 21-0 victory. Scoring twice in the second quarter, once by Shaw and once by Reichardt put Harding into a 14-0 lead. Early in the fourth quarter "Tete" Roberts plunged over for another six points. This game closed Harding's first undefeated season in football.

JUNIOR VARSITY

The Harding J. V's. coached by Coach Howard Hoffman completed a seven game season with a good record of two wins, two ties, and three losses. Facing tough opposition the Junior Prexies showed up well under fire. Starting off with the Galion sophs, the boys wound up on the upper end of a 26-0 score. The teams played included Larue and Richwood varsities and Galion, Mansfield, and Ashland reserves.

In the opinion of Coach Hoffman the Mansfield boys offered the strongest opposition. Against them Harding got a tie and a 13-0 loss.

The club scored sixty-two points to their foes thirty-eight.

By playing on a Thursday night, Harding led the N. C. O. race undisputed running rough shod over a weak Galion team, 36-22. Hudson's 16 points and Ron Stull's "unconscious" shot were the high points of the game.

First N. C. O. loss of the season was inflicted on the locals in a duel with the Ashland Hill Toppers. Weakness at the free throw line proved to be costly when Ashland triumphed 35-30.

Harding cagers entrenched themselves in third place with a decisive 38-28 win over Bucyrus. Hundreds of fans braved sub-zero weather to watch a fast moving, but hectic contest.

Second place tie with Ashland was realized when the prexies edged Shelby 34-30 on the Richland County court. The performance of Russ Reichardt held the spotlight as he held Shelby Bob Lehman to one field goal and took high scoring honors for the evening.

Meeting a strong Ashland squad before a sell-out crowd, the Harding Varsity reversed the tables when they turned on the steam to win 41-34. Hedge and Hudson led the scoring.

In one of the seasons closest contests and the tournament's most exciting game, the Presidents turned in their ninth straight win by defeating the Columbus Aquinas 41-39 in an overtime game. Roberts led the scoring with 12 points.

Losing to Central in the tournament finals by 41-32 score, the Prexies closed their season. Weakened by the loss of Dale Hudson, ace forward, the team seemed unable to find itself. The only bright point of the game was "Tete" Roberts' fifteen points.

Prexies Push Forward!

Slashing the Bellevue second-stringers 34-26 Harding's junior varsity got off to a flying start for the 1939-40 season. After taking Delaware 29-12 the team dropped their next encounter to Columbus North by a two point margin. Entering N. C. O. competition the Vice-Presidents climbed back into the win column smashing Shelby, Bexley, and Galion in that order. Ashland then handed the Harding seconds their first league defeat of the season, in a close, but exciting game, 29-27. Disgusted and enraged by being toppled out of first place by two points, the J. V.'s settled down to hard and strenuous practices preparatory to playing Mt. Vernon. Tearing into the "Yellow Jackets" with the opening whistle, they blasted them to a stirring 31-22 defeat. With the enthusiasm they had built up Harding kept its strong pace, nosing out Bucyrus 18-13, bowling over Shelby 30-20, and walloping Galion 36-13. Revenge was sweet as the "seconds" trounced Ashland, only unbeaten N. C. O. team, 24-19. Mt. Vernon and Bucyrus were easy pickings, as the J. V.'s kept astride with their varsity cohorts, by trimming them with scores of 32-19 and 25-13 respectively. All in all the Vice-Presidents ended their season successfully, winning 12 of their 14 games, coming out of the race with half of the N. C. O. championship — Ashland Hill-Toppers being the other co-champ.

G. A. A.

"Play ball!" When you hear this from Miss McAfee you know that the Girl's Athletic Association is having one of their bi-weekly sports meetings. The club awards a letter "A" to the winning team in the G. A. A. volley ball tournament each spring. The girls strive to play fair and square and to cultivate a healthy mind and body by proper living and beneficial exercise. Many social events and entertainments are planned during the year.

All girls taking gym are eligible to join the G.A.A., which gives the girls more extensive playing of games and many social activities, the most important of which is a big formal dance in the spring.

The officers for 1940 are: Donna Ault, president; Carolyn King, vice president; Marjorie Callahan, secretary; and Helen Ditter, treasurer.

Initiation time! . . . pale faces, bad hose, pigtails tied with red ribbons . . . black grease paint, . . . big boxes for books . . . These all go into proclaiming sophomores and a few juniors as new members of the G.A.A. . . . Sports meetings . . . sixteen to become members . . . more to obtain the pendant or pin of the club.

Calendar

Sept. 12 — School began
13 — E. H. Shade reported for duty. His alarm clock was slow.
15 — Marjorie Ebert fell downstairs while going to the office to be reprimanded for eating peanuts in typing class.
20 — Grant Mouser got "A" in Vergil.
21 — Miss Turney said someone had made a mistake. Grant said he know it was too good to be true.
25 — Monday morning. John Brashares stayed home. He had washday blues.
27 — Susan Miller bought herself some new red lipstick to help her catch a fellow.
30 — Betty Jo Hogue was caught writing notes in typing class. She had to stay after school for an hour and type "I will not write notes no more."

Oct. 4 — Mildred Carder discovered that her aunt's sister's nephew's cousin was Robert Taylor's secretary's uncle.
8 — Doris Weber got a new boy friend in Bucyrus and hitch-hiked over to see him every Saturday afternoon.
10 — Mr. Bain forgot to mention his family once in biology class.
12 — Columbus discovered America. Elsie Williamson discovered Victor Martin.
17 — Jack Harris made a touchdown. He was practicing in his back yard.
20 — Virginia Mathiot recited in chemistry class.
25 — Grade cards. Irene Morgan got two F's.
30 — Bob Davis got arrested for holding up traffic. He was going too slowly.

Nov. 9 — 107 boys were absent. Hedy LeMarr was playing at the Palace.
13 — Work began on a new auditorium for Harding.
14 — Phyllis Tierney gave a speech in assembly on "The Rise and Fall of the Roman Empire."
20 — Avis Lill's birthday. Junior gave her a box of pencils.
23 — Miriam Linder didn't have a date.
25 — Somebody gave "Zeis" a black eye.
26 — Mlle. Freer said "Hello" in English.
30 — Thanksgiving. Harold Uncapher ate too much roast duck and was in bed for a week.

Dec. 5 — Isadore Birnbaum wrote a poem to Zelma.
10 — Barbara Newell and Leroy McGinnis didn't have a fight.
14 — Joe Bindley was sued for breach of promise. "I only told her I'd call her up some time," wailed Joe. Seems he told her he'd give her a ring.
16 — Bill O'Hara wrote a letter to Santa Claus asking for a pair of boxing gloves. Bill says he's a weakling and he wants to develop his muscles.
20 — Santa Claus wrote Bill O'Hara a letter. He said he'd send Bill some spinach 'cause it isn't nice to fight.
23 — Vacation started. Dale Hudson decided to stay home and help his mother.
24 — Dale made the beds, swept the floor and did the dishes.
25 — Dale got his electric train!

Jan. 1 — Wayne Short resolved to stay away from the girls.
2 — Wayne Short was seen walking with 5 girls.
4 — Ronny Stull announced that in his opinion "Hedy La Marr ain't got it. Ronny ain't here any more.
10 — "Gert" Bindley's cat had kittens.
15 — Arlie Porter lost his voice.
18 — Florence Kerr announced that she was through with men forever — or anyway, until Ralph came down again.

Calendar

24 — Paul Schwemley got a new Cadillac convertable. Paul likes "the wind and rain in his hair."
31 — Carl Robinson started saving to buy Janet Nichols a box of candy for Valentine's Day.

Feb. 5 — Virginia Starner started going steady with Wayne Short.
6 — Virginia started going steady with Gerald Strauss.
11 — Avonelle Bailey missed one on a history test and she thought that she must be suffering from mental paralysis.
15 — A group of students formed a "Thank God, Friday" club.
22 — Gloria Danner and George Washington had a birthday.
26 — Cold weather kept Don Carder home with a cold (so he said).
29 — Ralph Howard celebrated his fourth birthday.

Mar. 11 — Robert Taylor and Clark Gable visited Marion. The boys had the school all to themselves.
5 — Miss Eymon was arrested for careless driving.
8 — Jitterbug contest was held in the gym. First prize was won by Riley Hall and Ethel Smith. Bob Search came in second.
13 — Margaret Williams dreamed she had a fight with Ferguson so she wouldn't speak to him at school next day.
18 — Tommy Biggert won a scholarship to Harvard. When asked how he felt he stated, "This does not come as a surprise to me. I knew my high mentality would be recognized some day."
21 — Bill Clevenger went to see "Tobacco Road" and now he refuses to wear his shoes.
25 — Obal Gearhiser got a permanent wave. Now he gets to school on time.
29 — Mac McGinnis found the solution to all his troubles while working in the lab. Mac is no more.

Apr. 1 — "Huffie" fooled his pupils and gave them a geometry test.
2 — "Tete" Roberts wrote to Betty.
3 — "Tete" Roberts wrote to Joan.
4 — "Tete" Roberts wrote to Pat. (What a man!)
16 — Virginia Bausman and Delmar Brewer heard Cupid hinting.
24 — Iris Erow gave Weldon the gate.
25 — Iris announced that Weldon was her One and Only.
30 — Bill Turner invented a new parachute which he said would make millions. He didn't say millions of what.

May 1 — Report card day. Gene Anderson decided to study.
3 — Nancy Wright announced that she was through with men.
4 — Grant Mouser announced that he was through with women.
5 — Nancy and Grant made up.
7 — Dirt Williams (the old salt) visited school and brought to each of his teachers a bottle of real salt water, straight out of the ocean.
9 — Senior play. Five girls had stage fright and had to be revived with a bucket of cold H2O.
14 — George Hedge was found sleeping in study hall and instantly awakened — His snoring was keeping the rest of the students awake.
19 — Honor Society was selected. Three people were received as members. Said the teaching staff, "This is indeed deplorable."

June 1 — Mr. Marshall announced that graduation exercises would be put off until August because of an epidemic of mumps started by Dick Lawson.
4 — Peg Knapp got her Prom date.
5 — The Prom!
7 — Senior Dance. Carroll Williams went home at 11 o'clock because he had a charley horse.

Through this wide-arched doorway,
Students move to and fro;
And through the pages of this Quiver,
In memory you may go.

There was a man who fancied that by driving good and fast

He'd get his car across the track before the train came past;

He'd miss the engine by an inch, and make the train-hands sore,

There was a man who fancied this; there isn't any more.

She smiles, my darling smiles, and all
The world is filled with light;
She laughs — 'tis like the bird's sweet call,
In meadows fair and bright.
She weeps — the world is cold and grey,
Rain-clouds shut out the view;
She sings — I softly steal away
And wait till she gets through.

One of the prominent deacons in an Ohio church was seriously ill. As he was very popular among the congregation, a bulletin board was pasted in front of the church to inform of his condition. It read:

"One o'clock. Deacon Jones very ill."

"Two o'clock. Deacon Jones is worse and sinking rapidly."

"Three o'clock. Deacon Jones dead."

A traveling man passing by that evening read the bulletin and, seeing no one in sight, added at the bottom:

"Seven o'clock. Great excitement in Heaven. Deacon Jones has not arrived. The worst is feared."
